RICHARD GEIB INSANE AND INCURABLE, SENT TO ASYLUM FOR LIFE

Sent Eleven Bullets Into Face of Man He Did Not Know.

Richard V. Gelb, son of Dr. Henry P. Geib, of Stamford, Conn., who shot and killed James Boylan in the furnished room house at No. 136 West One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street. May 22, pumping eleven bullets into was adjudged insane to-day by a commission of experts and committed to the Matteawan Asylum for Insane Criminals by Judge Rosalsky of the Court of General Sessions.

Gelb, who is twenty-eight years old, has long been considered insane. After his parents were divorced he was an inmate of several sanitariums. Boylan, an ex-saloon keeper of Providence, R. L. had rented a room in the house a few days before he was killed. He did not know his slayer. Gelb maintained that he did not shoot Boylan, but that a stranger who had stolen his rifle, had committed the murder. Detectives found the rifle, the barrel of which was still warm, in a trunk in Geib's

The commission which found Geil insane was appointed by Judge Rosalsky. It consisted of Charles H. Murray, attorney; Dr. R. H. Green, allen-ist, and Henry H. Bizallion. It recommended his incarceration for life on the ground that he is incurable. Burgiars and pickpockets were the principal offendors disposed of by the Judges of the Court of General Sessions yesterday. Nine prisoners were ar-convicted by trial or confession, The penalties imposed were: BY JUDGE ROSALSKY.
